Dear parishioners:

The Lord provided us with perfect weather for our outdoor joint Mass on the grounds of Nativity of Our Lord on Sunday, November 9, with 440 people from Nativity of Our Lord and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in attendance. I want to thank all who planned and participated in this Mass, in particular the merger committee and liturgical ministers from both parishes. Everyone who spoke to me about this experience commented on how much it helped with various aspects of the merger. Christine Bordelon, a parishioner of SEAS, wrote a good article about the event, entitled "Nativity-St. Elizabeth Unite at Outdoor Mass, BBQ." The article appeared in the Clarion Herald's November 15 issue, which you can read online at www.clarionherald.org.

Thanks to all who presented names for our new merged parish in the nomination phase, which ended last Sunday, November 16. The merger committee is compiling the names and will be coming back to us with the next phase soon.

Please continue to pray for both parishes, and in particular for the merger committee, which still has a lot of work to do. By the time you read this article, we will have met with the Archdiocese and will hopefully have our questions answered. I'll let you know how it goes.

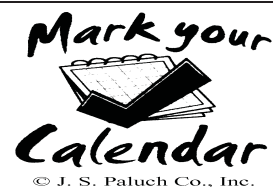

Fr. David
